

2006

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

INTELLIGENCE REPORT

Date: 3 APR 1960 By: 028

COUNTRY China

DATE:

SUBJECT Political Information:
Centers

Mongolian Political

INFO. As stated

DIST. 16 January 1947

PAGES 1

SUPPLEMENT

25X1A6a

ORIGIN

25X1X6

1. Hailar is one of the political centers of the [Eastern] Mongols. Officially, Erkinbato (E-Erh-Chin-Pa-Tu) is the political leader in Hailar but Hafengah and As Han [?] are actually in control. They were sent to Hailar from Linsi (118-01, 43-30). There is constant communication between Hailar and the Mongolian People's Republic.

25X1A6a

25X1A2a

Date of Info:

25X1X6

Note: See [redacted] paragraph 2 for previous report on Hafengah.7

2. The political center of the Eastern Mongolians (with the exception of Hailar district) has shifted from Wangyehmiao (122-01, 46-05) to Linsi, which is now the center of all political activities of the Eastern Mongolian Government. The head of this government is Buin Mandaho (Po-Yen-Man-Tu) and Manibadra (Ma-Ni-Pa-Ta-La) serves under him.

Date of Info: [REDACTED] 25X1X6

3. Before its capture by the Nationalists, Kalgan was a political center of the Western Mongols in Chahar. Although led by Yun Tse (Ulan Hu), this movement was under the direction of the leaders in Linsi.

Date of Info: [REDACTED] 25X1X6

4. There are also two smaller political centers in Chahar Province; Habirga (Haipiko, 115-31, 42-17) for Chahar Aimak and Peitzumiao (116-10, 43-50) for Silingol Aimak. Wanchin [?] is the political leader in Peitzumiao. The name of the political leader in Habirga is unknown.

Date of Info: [REDACTED] 25X1X6

25X1A9a

25X1X7

25X1A8a

~~CLASSIFICATION~~

[illegible]

Approved For Release 1999/09/08 : CIA-RDP82-00457R000200680002-7

25X1A9a